

GUN VIOLENCE PREVENTION

SPEAKERS & FILM

Sunday, January 11, 4 p.m., Beit Kehillah

Colin Goddard, Virginia Tech shooting survivor.

Learn what's being done to prevent gun violence in California, why gun violence is a public health issue and what you can do to help make our schools and community safe. We will hear from speakers including:

- MINDY FINKELSTEIN, camp counselor and survivor of the shooting at the JCC in Granada Hills, CA in 1999.
- SHIKHA HAMILTON, attorney and California campaign manager for the Brady Campaign to Prevent Gun Violence.
- AARON NAYFACK, MD, MPH, Developmental Behavioral Pediatrician at Santa Clara Valley Medical Center.

The program also includes the film, Living for 32, an inspirational story about a survivor of the Virginia Tech massacre, who has channeled his optimism into a personal crusade to address the issue of gun safety in our nation.

Refreshments and advocacy information will follow the program. Babysitting will be provided.

The program is co-sponsored by Beth Am Women, Beth Am Men, BATY and the Beth Am Tzedek Council.
